EUNIC is a partnership of national institutions for culture from EU member-states. It works across a global network of 32 cities, from Brussels to New Delhi and Moscow to New York.

In London, EUNIC was set up in 2007. It has 12 members and 10 associates.

We organize in partnership with prominent British organizations and with support from the European Commission Representation in the UK a series of arts & culture programmes showcasing Europe's diverse and vibrant arts, culture and linguistic scene.

Our most recent projects, in September-December 2008, include dancEUnion, a contemporary dance festival at the Southbank Centre and What's Art Doc?, a season of art documentary screenings, which opened at the ICA. For 2009 we plan journeys into European design, music and literature.
